Profile

Alex joined Old Square Chambers in October 2019 after the successful completion of his pupillage. He is building a diverse practice in Chambers' core areas of work – Employment, Discrimination, Personal Injury, Clinical Negligence and Professional Discipline. Alex is also gaining experience of Public Inquiries – he is currently instructed as Junior Counsel to the London Fire Brigade in respect of its participation in Phase Two of the Grenfell Tower Inquiry.

Alex also has a particular interest in Public Law and Human Rights, having studied these areas at a postgraduate level and having worked as a Legal Officer at the Electoral Commission prior to joining Chambers. Alex welcomes instructions in these areas.

Alex read Law at Homerton College, Cambridge, and studied for an LLM in Human Rights Law at the LSE, in which he achieved a Distinction and scored the highest mark in the year in Employment Law. For his BPTC year, Alex received an Outstanding and was awarded the Bedingfield Scholarship by Gray's Inn, the Inn's most prestigious award. Alex also received the BPP Pro Bono and Social Justice Award - he remains committed to pro bono work and is a member of Advocate.
