Profile

Darshan joined Old Square following pupillage at a leading clinical negligence set and is developing a broad practice across all areas of chambers' expertise, with a particular focus on Employment, Clinical Negligence and Personal Injury.

Further details of Darshan's work can be found under the relevant headings below.

Darshan came to the Bar with substantial advocacy experience, having worked as a County Court Advocate, where he attended over 850 hearings including infant settlements, CCMCs, interlocutory applications and small claims trials. He is also especially aware of the pressures faced by professional clients, having been on a secondment as in-house counsel within a large respondent solicitors firm.
