Profile

Deshpal is a leading employment junior, described as in the employment directories as follows:

“A cracking cross examiner” with “admirable client care skills” Chambers and partners 2012

“Exceptionally well prepared” Legal 500 2014

“He knows his stuff and can handle difficult judges with ease” Chambers and Partners 2013

He is instructed by a large range of solicitors from city firms to regional firms and his clients range from the largest companies to trade unions and local authorities to the entire breadth of claimants, from multi-claimant representative actions to individual claimants.

He writes and previously edited Westlaw’s Insight pages on Age discrimination.

Deshpal is Chair of the Employment Law Bar Association, and a member of both the Industrial Law Society and the ELA.
