Profile

Prior to commencing pupillage Grace worked as a County Court Advocate. She conducted over 450 civil hearings, including small claims, infant settlements, summary judgments and strike out applications. The scope of her work ranged from contractual disputes to personal injury matters.

Grace completed a Law degree at the University of Bristol in 2015. She was called to the Bar in 2016 in the top 10 of her cohort, having achieved a grade of 'Outstanding'.

She was awarded a major scholarship and Duke of Edinburgh Entrance Award from Inner Temple. During her BPTC year Grace was a member of the Inner Temple team who represented England at the International Telders Moot Court Competition in The Hague.
