Profile

Victoria has a busy multi-disciplinary practice with a wide client base. She specialises in clinical negligence, employment and discrimination, personal injury and regulatory work, with an additional interest in public and administrative law and inquests.

Victoria undertook her pupillage in Chambers and was called to the Bar in July 2009. Before then, she worked for Amnesty International as a specialist researcher and lobbyist on human rights issues and legislation relating to the Russian Federation.

She is a member of the C Panel of Junior Counsel to the Crown.
